Identifying Paul's Unmentioned Mother & His Herodian Kinsmen of Romans 16:10-11

Romans 16:10b–11: "Salute them which are of Aristobulus' household. Salute Herodion my kinsman. Greet them that be of the household of Narcissus."

The life events of the three people recorded in Romans 16:10b–11, Aristobulus I, Herod(ion) and (powerful freedman and secretary) Narcissus, all chronologically synchronize with the date of Paul's letter to the Romans circa 56 CE, meaning together they all mutually triple verify each other's identities and moreso unequivocally reveal that Paul is a patrilineal Edomite. Furthermore, after positively identifying Paul is kinsmen of Herod, a patrilineal Edomite, it is the key, along with forensic chronology of the "We Passage" of Acts 20:6, that unlocks that Lucius is Luke who is also a patrilineal Edomite, Paul's kinsmen.
